

Grover M. See

Born in Shook Run near Bass, West Virginia, Grover M. See graduated from Moorefield High School.

He started with Rockingham Poultry in 1945 as a truck driver and later served as live buyers, processing plant superintendent, assistant plant manager and plant manager for 18 years. He was director of live procurement and planning for nearly two years prior to his retirement in 1986, with over 40 years of service.

He served as president, vice-president, treasurer, program chairman, fund raiser and currently executive secretary of the West Virginia Poultry Association. He has been a guiding influence in this organization his entire career.

He is a member and served on the board of the West Virginia Agricultural and Forestry Hall of Fame Foundation. He was a promotor of the Chicken of Tomorrow contest, Poultry Improvement Program and poultry research at all levels.