West Virginia DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

NOVEMBER 2024

WELCOME!

West Virginians take great pride in their heritage, and our veteran and hero farmers are no exception—in fact, they're exceptional. The Veterans and Heroes to Agriculture program was created to support veterans, law enforcement officers, and emergency response personnel who are entering or working in agriculture, enhancing their health, welfare, and contributing to our agricultural economy. Through partnerships with agencies, organizations, and farms statewide, the program provides members with education, training, scholarships, and mentorship across various agricultural skills and topics.

The program also promotes the development of agricultural industries, products, and marketing opportunities across West Virginia. Special branding options, like "Homegrown By Heroes" and "West Virginia Grown," allow these producers to place specific logos on their products, ensuring buyers that these goods were grown or processed with quality ingredients in the Mountain State by our veterans and heroes. As the demand for local food rises and consumers seek fresher, healthier options, branding products as local will be key to unlocking new market opportunities.

These programs are vital to growing and diversifying our economy while strengthening local food systems across West Virginia. West Virginians have a deep-rooted pride in their culture and always support each other and the state. We aim to embody that spirit in our West Virginia Veterans & Heroes to Agriculture Program. Agriculture has a strong history in the Mountain State, and we believe it will be essential to our future.

Semper Fi,

Kent A. Leonhardt
West Virginia Commissioner of Agriculture

Devil's Due Distillery

At Devil's Due Distillery, they mash and ferment grains utilizing local products, distill them weekly, and bottle them. Their name is a play on the term "Angel's Share". Angel's share is when whiskey gets aged in a barrel, about 3-5% evaporates every year that it ages. The old timers used to say that the angels were coming down to drink it, so what's left in the barrel is referred to as the "Devil's Due". They are open seven days a week and host private events and parties.

The West Virginia Farmers Market Association (WVFMA) is a statewide membership-based organization designed to strengthen farmers markets and enhance their surrounding communities. The WVFMA provides resources and technical assistance to farmers markets through our website and other communication channels. The WVFMA works with various partners across the state to provide farmers markets with relatable and relevant resources to address their needs.

The West Virginia Farmers Market Association (WVFMA) is honored to offer free membership to members of the West Virginia Department of Agriculture's Veterans and Heroes Program. This complimentary membership, courtesy of the West Virginia Department of Agriculture, provides access to a host of benefits at no cost.

Members enjoy discounted rentals of our three poultry processing trailers, membership packets funded by the Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation, eligibility for our Mini-Grant program, personalized one-on-one support, membership to the Farmers Market Coalition, and more!

In 2007, a group of farmers and farm advocates were awarded a grant through the West Virginia Department of Agriculture. Initial guidance for the group was provided by the WVU Extension Service and Davis College of Agriculture, Forestry and Consumer Sciences. Since inception, the WVFMA has been committed to strengthening the viability of farmers markets across West Virginia.

Over time the WVFMA grew to include more than 60 farmers markets across the state. In 2012, the WVFMA began a system of analytical data collection known as the annual West Virginia Farmers Market Census. This census exposed a critical need for a standardized data collection system for all farmers markets in West Virginia. The WVFMA developed the data collection toolkit to assist markets with the task. Free Membership for Veterans and Heroes Program Participants

Join the WVFMA today and discover the support and growth of your market and business! Reach out to (304) 398-5214 or coordinator@wvfarmers.org for more information.

WEST VIRGINIA GROWN BRANDING

West Virginia Grown is the official marketing and branding program for agricultural products grown or produced in West Virginia. The program's goals are (1) for consumers to easily identify and purchase agricultural products grown and/or manufactured in the state, (2) to expand the overall local foods economy to support farmers, manufacturers and other agribusinesses, and (3) to create a more robust and resilient food system in the Mountain State.

The WV Grown Partner Program seeks to broaden the brand's footprint by recognizing "Sold Here - Served Here - Supported Here" individuals and establishments. Retailers, restaurants and supporters play a critical role in our local food economy and are important ambassadors who help expand the WV Grown brand.

Program Requirements - WV Grown Producers: Products must be grown in West Virginia, or manufactured products must have at least 50 percent of their value added within the state. Other requirements may apply. WV Grown Partners: Must sell or serve at least one WV Grown product in their retail establishment or food service business. Supporting partners must explain how they further the WV Grown brand and mission. Membership is made through application to - and acceptance by - the WVDA. Simply applying does not make you a member. Members understand that they agree to have their contact and product information shared with the public. This does not include proprietary information that WVDA may be privy to.

Program Benefits - Official Certificate of Membership. Use of the "WEST VIRGINIA GROWN"® logo. Use of marketing materials available for purchase from the WVDA (see promotional materials request form). Inclusion in public member listings. Promotional coverage through the WVDA's Market Bulletin, social media platforms, outreach efforts and special events. Inclusion in the printed "WEST VIRGINIA GROWN"® member directory. No cost to join! Food products that are accepted by the West Virginia Department of Agriculture (WVDA) must meet the following requirements.

Criteria for "WEST VIRGINIA GROWN"® Manufactured Food Products - To be accepted into the WV Grown Program, manufactured food products must meet the following requirements:

1. Manufactured products must have at least 50 percent of their value added within the state.
2. Must be properly labeled according to WVDA labeling standards. Label reviews are a free service of the WVDA, which will issue a certificate of label review for approved labels.
3. Packaging for products must be of high quality and appropriate for the product. Tamper-evident sealing is recommended to ensure that products will remain of the highest quality.
4. Some products may require special manufacturing certifications and process approvals. See the WVDA Farmers Market Vendor Guide for details.

Honeybee colonies must be registered with WVDA's Animal Health Division (AHD). Call 304-558-2214 for details.

HOMEGROWN BY HEROES & WEST VIRGINIA GROWN MERGED BRANDING

The West Virginia Department of Agriculture is pleased to announce the official agreement with the Farmer Veteran Coalition's Homegrown By Heroes Mark to produce a merged mark combining WV Grown and the Homegrown By Heroes. This mark certifies farmers and ranchers of all military eras to sell their product as veteran and locally owned and produced. This is a marketing initiative that informs consumers that agricultural products donning the mark were locally produced, grown, or with 50% or greater value-added non-water ingredients within West Virginia by U.S. military veterans. The initiative allows veterans to differentiate their farm and ranch products in the marketplace.

Benefits of using the merged WV Grown and Homegrown By Heroes Mark

- The mark differentiates locally and veteran-produced products in competitive markets.
- It provides consumers with a tangible way to support veterans.
- Displaying the mark on your farmers' market stand, egg cartons, canned goods, produce boxes, etc. gives veterans the point-of-sale visibility needed to be successful in the marketplace.
- Displaying the mark on a farmers' market stand or anywhere you do business invites consumers to ask about the mark, providing an opportunity for the veteran to share their story and connect with their customers. In many cases, this leads to loyal, returning customers.

How do I get WV Grown Homegrown By Heroes certified?

1. In order to become a certified Homegrown By Heroes member, first become a member of the Farmer Veteran Coalition (membership is free). If you are not yet a member or for more information, visit <https://farmvetco.org/membership/>
